

Ray Pearce at Adam and Greenwood
166-168 High Street
My career was in electronics but later in life I attended Janet Reids art classes. My main interest is surreal art.

Sophie Cooper at Wenlocks
77 High Street
I enjoy creating characters and express moods & emotion through my drawings.

Cherie Smith at Essex Beds
2 Market Hill
My work responds to city spaces and the natural environment. Both rural and urban space is key. Modern cities are defined by the architecture, that is industrial and hostile. My intention is to gain a sense of utopianism in response to those environments we are surrounded by every day that can restrict us, are claustrophobic and manmade. www.cheriesmith-art.co.uk

Debbie Mcintee at Coes of Maldon
61 High Street
My art offers space, a little breathing room for the soul. Created with love from my heart. www.soulfulcreations.co.uk

smugcult at Maldon Fireplace
160 High Street
I am Andrew Hull born and bred in Maldon having spent years working in the public sector, as middle aged dawned I realised my true passion was creating art. www.smugcult.co.uk

Sue Hodgson at Reeves 126 High Street
I am a self taught artist, encouraged to paint from childhood. My work reflects a range of subjects from portraits to rock bands, animals, flora and fauna using a variety of media. www.suehodgsonart.com

Angelique Hartigan at Maldon Studios
Open Studios - see Angelique's process and growing range of vibrant and energetic paintings of local landscapes and street scenes www.maldonstudios.com

James Gilmour at Maldon Studios
Live demonstration - James Gilmour is currently a student at Plume College, Maldon. Through his initial interest in graffiti, James has developed an interest in wider drawing and painting techniques. Many of his drawings are landscapes from his imagination, inspired by ancient Chinese scrolls and printmaking

Malcolm Brown at The Emporium
85-87 High Street
I see my images as pieces of unique photographic art. Each image portraying changing moods and idea, representing moments in time which, reflect the structure and diversity of environments both natural and man made. www.mjb-images.co.uk

Follow the figures at Maldon TIC
Wenlock Way
Enter our figure spotting competition and find out about lots of other interesting things to do in the Maldon District at the same time www.visitmaldondistrict.co.uk

John Green at Herr Kutz
Shop D Wenlock Way
I am a self taught artist who enjoys creating composition that removes unnecessary detail, to give my watercolours a feeling of simplicity

Michelle Bowers at Black Cat Coffeeshop
Wenlock Way
I am a watercolour artist inspired by the beauty of the local landscape. I like to closely reproduce what I see giving my work a photographic quality. facebook.com/michellebowersfineart

Maeldune Heritage Centre
Market Hill
Art exhibition and more from students of the Plume Academy, including drawing, painting, sculpture, photography, printing and mixed media. www.maelduneheritagecentre.co.uk

Jill Hipsey at Co-operative Funeral Services
13-15 Market Hill
I have always had a love of textiles and sewing. I explore many techniques in order to create pieces which are often inspired by my travels and the natural world.

Maldon Library
A selection of the entries from our 2017 Young Persons Art Competition

Please share your MAT experineces on social media #MAT2017

Town Centre Art Trail

Gemma Down at HJ Pook/Saffron Insurance
59 High Street
After studying at the Norwich School of art and the university of Essex I now teach Art at secondary level in outer London. Focussing my personal art in different areas, illustration, printmaking and painting. I take my inspiration from landscapes

Charlotte Moore at the Arthouse Cafe
41 High Street
I love to paint in my free time. This year my inspiration derives form living on the river blackwater & the Maldon barges

Krzysztof Otorowski at Yours in Sport
39 High Street
I am an artist from Poland, settled in Maldon since 2011. I feel the best around architecture, people and environment. Also I do the short animations and comics. www.youtube.com/c/krzysztofotorowski

Nicola Hughes at Lunar
17 High Street
I work in various textile media and love to portray the East Anglian and South African landscapes. I do work to order and also teach adults and children. www.nicolahughestextiles.co.uk

Steve Boutwell at Paul King
1 High Street
My camera is always with me and I take every opportunity to photograph images that fill me with joy and will perhaps bring happiness to others.

Ann Cuthbert at Harry Greens
14 High Street
I am a glass artist making ornaments, pictures and jewellery in fabulous coloured glass. I teach monthly workshops where students can learn to cut glass, learn the qualities of glass and make many items or glass art and jeweellery. Lunch is included and students can enjoy a good day out. www.aniaoriginals.co.uk

Dione Page at Hayletts
Oakwood House, 2 High St,
This artist enjoys weaving together still lives, landscapes & seascapes. Influenced by Mary Fedden and Edward Bawden, Dione thoughtfully employs gouache and mixed media to capture all the details shapes and patterns. The end results are always richly textured magical and atmospheric – a world within a world, extraordinary yet familiar. www.haylettsgallery.com